GUARDSMEN TAKE QUICKLY TO WAR GAME AS TAUGHT

Men at Red Hill Camp Given Training Under Conditions Like Real Warfare

(Staff Correspondence by W. H. Johnson, Private Machine Gun Company, National Guard of Hawaii.)

NATIONAL GUARD CAMP, Red Hill, Nov. 22.—Continuing its work from the point where it left off Monday, the first infantry regiment, N. G. H., encamped at Red Hill, worked out maneuvers Tuesday which correspond as closely as possible to real war conditions and what with a special parade in honor of Governor Lucius E. Pinkham at noon and its own work of capturing trenches, defeating a superior force of the enemy and the accompanying duties of camp life, the men of the regiment put in an extremely busy day, and officers and men alike were glad when night came and they were able to turn in.

Like Sunday and Monday the weather Tuesday was perfect, in fact, it has been so good that everybody feels it can't last much longer but such has his fingers crossed and if there is anything in mental telepathy every cloud that creeps up over the horizon must feel at least some of the power that radiates from the camp.

Governor is Pleased

Governor Pinkham surprised the camp by paying it a visit and was greatly pleased with the organization. He stayed to dinner at headquarters and during the afternoon watched the maneuvers. When seen just before he left he praised the spirit which the men are showing and the interest taken by the officers. "I am greatly pleased with the way things are going here," he said, "and I feel that the money being spent by the territory could not be put to a better use. Everybody is taking real personal interest in what they are doing and when the week is over the people of Honolulu may well be proud of the citizen soldiery."

Informal Inspection Held

The governor was accompanied by Dunbar Wright and in honor of the visit the entire regiment was called out and an informal inspection parade was held.

Gen. Samuel Johnson also paid his daily visit to the camp and said he was entirely satisfied with the results. He inspected all parts of the camp and watched the different units as they carried out the day's instructions.

As usual the day began at 6 o'clock with roll call and it is an interesting study in human nature to listen to the men as their names are called. Some answer with loud voices while others with one eye still cast longingly at the warm beds which they have just left respond in feeble tones and one has the impression that they feel that the call of the bugle was a personal injury. But a wash and breakfast, particularly the last, puts everybody in good humor and by the time camp is cleaned up and ready for inspection, the men are prepared for whatever the day may bring.

Lesson Well Learned

Monday the infantry companies and battalions worked out the mechanism of extended order drill by means of signals under the direction of a regular army sergeant. Tuesday the same thing was done without the aid of the regular army men and the way the companies went through the maneuvers without a hitch showed that the previous day's instructions had been thoroughly learned. And this is largely due to the interest which these army instructors are taking in the endeavors of the National Guard to learn as much as possible of the war game in the limited time which they have, for they certainly are working hard to give them this knowledge. This is also true of the specially detailed machine gun company from the 1st Infantry which is training the guard's gun company. The government has sent a number of picked men and the company under their direction is fast learning how to handle this most deadly of all small arms.

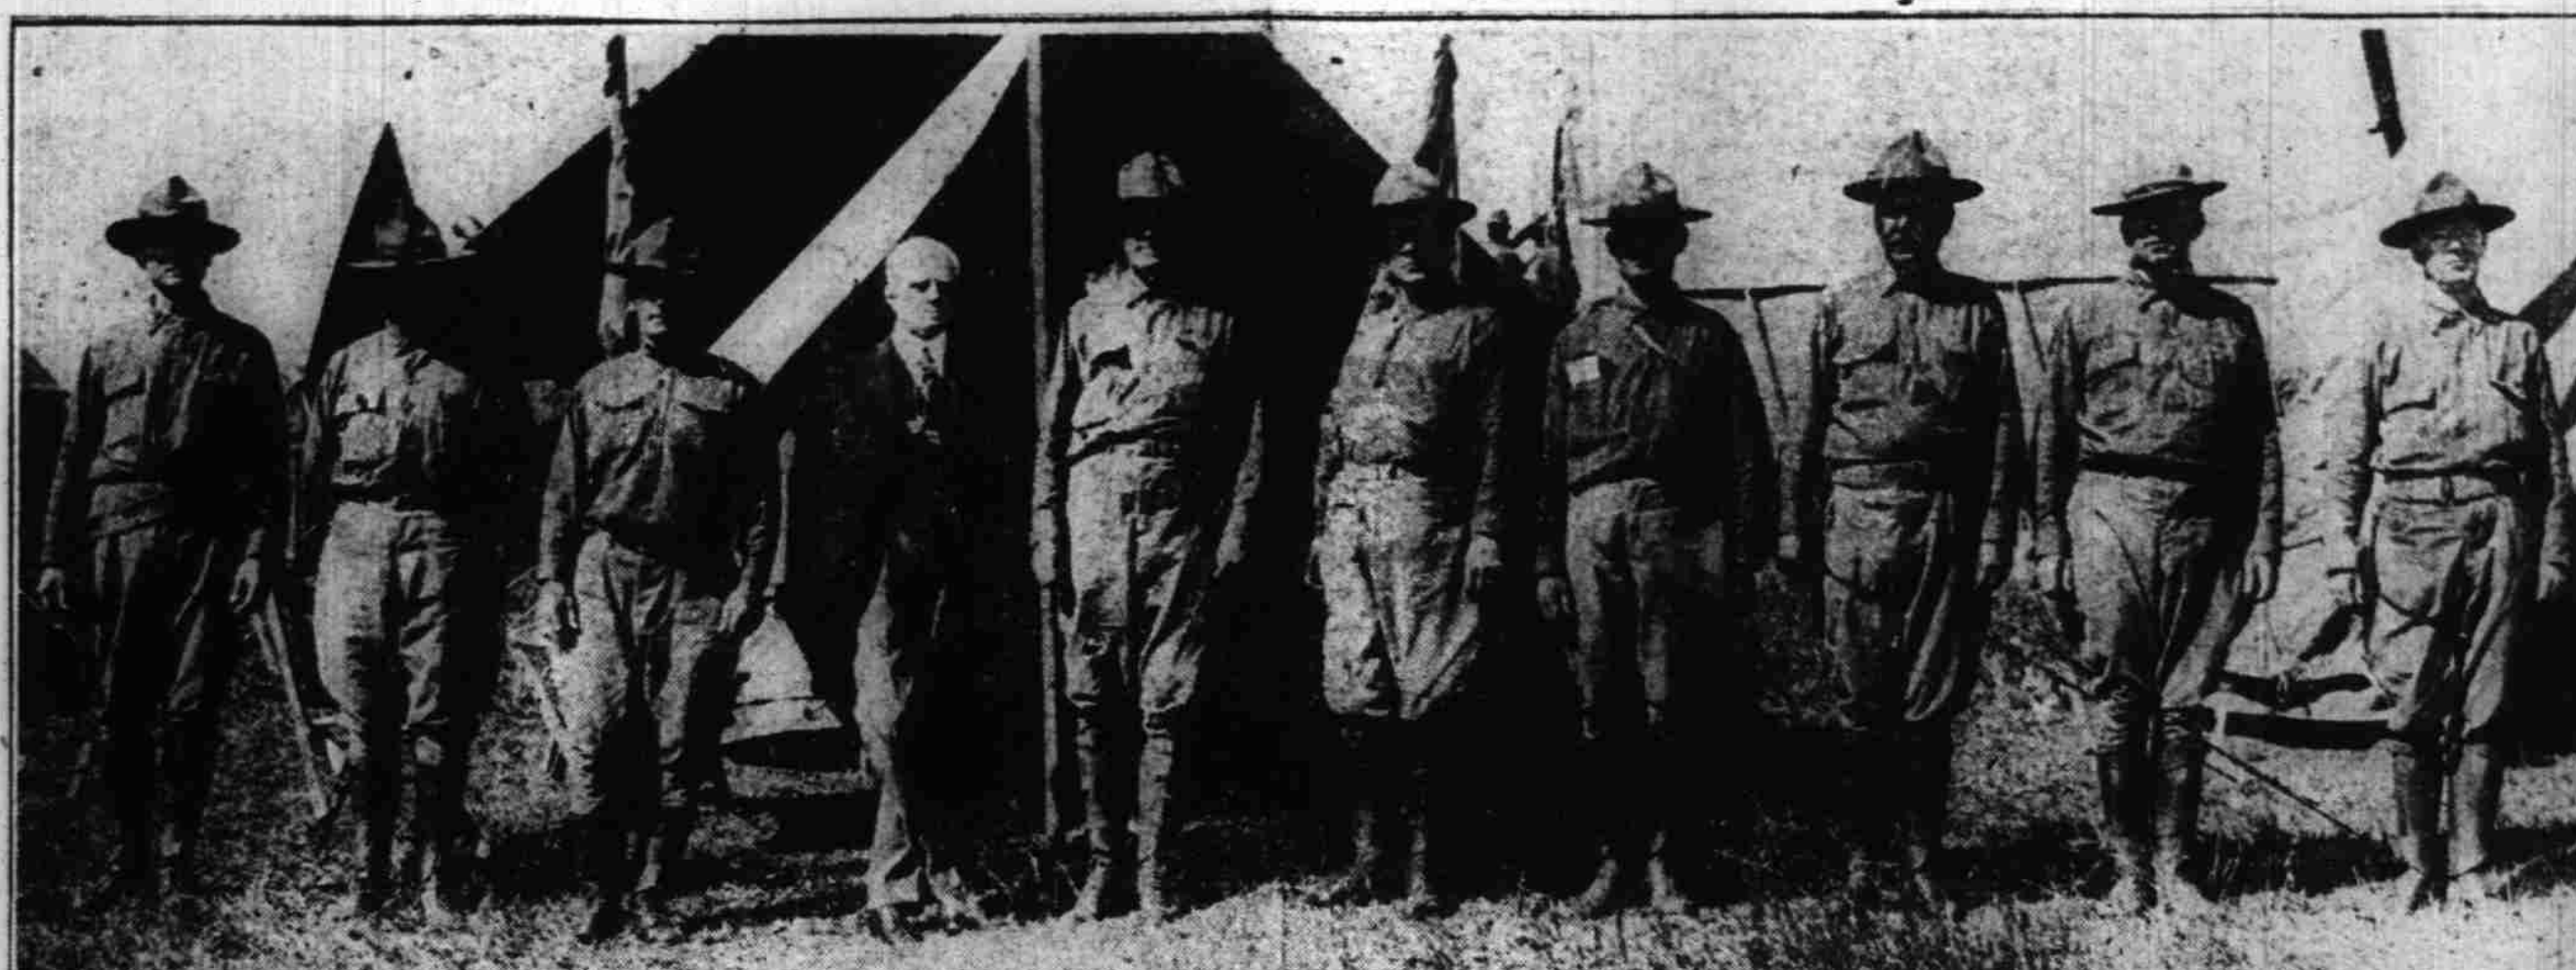

Practise Making Camp

In the afternoon the companies were taught how to roll their bedding and make up the packs and later pitch camp with shelter or "pup" tents as they are known in the army. At 2 o'clock the order came to break camp and march against the enemy and with bed rolls on their backs the men marched out of camp. Some distance out the order was then given to make camp and soon the hills were dotted with the little shelter tents. According to the regular army officers the new camp was made in surprisingly short time. When the tents were all properly pitched they were again taken up and the regiment marched back. Only Four Sick

Only four men have been sick since the regiment went into camp and this is an unusually low number, according to men who attended previous encampments of the Hawaii National Guard. Besides these several have received medical attention, but these were only for minor injuries such as cuts, bruises, etc. The medical corps is also being instructed how to attend to the sick and wounded and their work is particularly interesting as it deals with conditions as they would be if a real war was in progress. Practise at bringing wounded men in from the battlefield through theoretical trenches is a daily part of their duty.

FRENCH AIRMEN WIN PLACES ON ROLL OF HONOR

Must Bring Down Five Enemy Machines Before Name Be Used in Despatches

(By Associated Press)
PARIS, France.—French airmen are not mentioned by name in the official despatches until after they have brought down their fifth enemy machine. Up till then they remain anonymous.

The newest comer is Sergt.-Maj. Flachaire, who is a newcomer in another sense also, as he began his air fighting only in March at the beginning of the Verdun battle.

The list of other French flying men who have been "mentioned in despatches" is as follows:

	Machines

AFFILIATION OF GREAT LABOR UNIONS SEEMS NEAR

(Associated Press by Federal Wireles)
BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 22.—Efforts to effect a complete affiliation of the four great railroad brotherhoods and the American Federation of Labor were given a fresh impetus yesterday afternoon when the delegates to the federation convention, in session here, received with marked enthusiasm addresses by prominent representatives of the brotherhoods.

Samuel Gompers, president of the federation, is believed to favor the proposal to affiliate with the brotherhoods. It is thought that nothing prevents such a move save the possible action of the convention of the brotherhoods which is to be held in 1917. Should the railroad men favor the affiliation the federation, it is thought, will also approve.

W. W. Short Line Missed Landslide; Hughes Was In It

Campaign "Ticket" Sent to Honolulu Proves Poor Block-Signal in Politics

Some good Republican whose confidence in the election of Charles E. Hughes to the presidency has proved sadly misplaced, recently sent to Attorney M. F. Prosser a distinctly novel campaign document—an imitation railroad ticket. It is headed, "W. W. Short Line, Single Track," and purports to be a round-trip ticket from Trenton, N. J.

Here are a few of the phrases scattered along it:

"Time limit, four years. Road soon to be closed on account of landslide."

"Issued by Watchful Waiting Woodrow Wilson—Short Line, single track."

"Punch Expiration Date, March 4, 1917, in margin."

Among the "side trips" which the ticket ostensibly calls for are the following:

"White House station to Panama canal. Trip ordered by J. Bull. Free tickets plank floating to England."

"From Tampico. Explanations which do not explain still being made by Daniels."

"Columbus, N. M. Excursion conducted by F. and E. Villa. Sixteen Americans murdered. No indemnity. They had no business to live near Mexico."

"Get Villa Excursion. Personally conducted by Pershing, with orders from the president of the road to return if flagged by Friend Carranza."

"National Guard Excursion to Texas Summer Resorts. Cost, $109,000,000. Why? Because we are not at war with Mexico."

The foot of the ticket contains the following notice to the public:

"The W. W. Short Line will cease operations after the landslide of November 7, 1915. After that date all travel will be maintained on the Hughes Prosperity Special."

But it looks as if the Hughes Prosperity Special had been ditched!

CLAIM HILO ARMORY EXTENSIONS ILLEGAL

According to mail advices from Hilo, the Hawaii Meat Company is seeking to restrain Charles R. Forbes, superintendent of public works, from building an extension to the armory at that place along plans specified.

H. L. Ross is attorney for the petitioner and W. H. Beers, county attorney, will represent the territory in the suit, which will be taken to the supreme court. The petitioner claims that the proposed extension is not in conformity with the laws regarding limits. Beers will seek to show that the additions are within the 40 per cent limit allowed by law.

IN WAR ARENA

CENTRAL POWER DIPLOMATS MUST LEAVE GREECE TOMORROW

ATHENS, Greece, Nov. 22.—The diplomatic representatives of the Central Powers who have been ordered to leave this country on a specially provided ship not later than today, yesterday asked Admiral du Fournet, commanding the allied fleets here, for more time.

They declared they could not wind up their affairs and the affairs of their offices in the time limit given them. They wanted to be allowed to remain here until Saturday, and spent most of yesterday in conferring with neutral consuls regarding the subsequent care of German interests.

It is believed that the United States will take over the affairs of Turkey, Bulgaria and Austria, while the Dutch minister will be charged with the affairs of the German empire. The Austrian minister has decided to leave quietly.

It is understood that the request for an extension of time has been denied by the Allied authorities.

CONSUL MURPHY SNUBBED BY TEUTON OFFICIALS

AMSTERDAM, Netherlands, Nov. 22.—American Consul Murphy, stationed at Sofia, who has been visiting his daughter in Stockholm, arrived here yesterday after two trips through Germany. He reported that although he was armed with a special German pass, he was treated uncivilly by the authorities at Warnemunde. This treatment was repeated on his return through Germany, in spite of the assurances of the German minister in Denmark that he would be protected. Mr. Murphy is accompanied by his wife.

VON JAGOW RESIGNS; ILL HEALTH IS CAUSE

AMSTERDAM, Netherlands, Nov. 22.—According to despatches received here from Germany last night, Herr von Jagow, German minister of foreign affairs, has been compelled to resign his portfolio because of ill health. Herr Zimmermann probably will succeed him, adds the report.

SWITZERLAND REFUSES TO RECOGNIZE POLAND

PARIS, France, Nov. 22.—The government of Switzerland will refuse to recognize the newly created kingdom of Poland according to reports received here yesterday from Berne.

The petitioner claims that the proposed extension is not in conformity with the laws regarding limits. Beers will seek to show that the additions are within the 40 per cent limit allowed by law.

Following the passage of the resolution Supervisor Horner said he believed that the Bethel street improvements should be included in the proposal and Arnold replied that this was inadvisable and was purposely separated to prevent certain opposition that might be expected should it be done and that the combining of the two in one might give such opposition a frontage involved which might jeopardize the chances of both.

IMPROVEMENT OF HOTEL STREET IS TAKING ON FORM

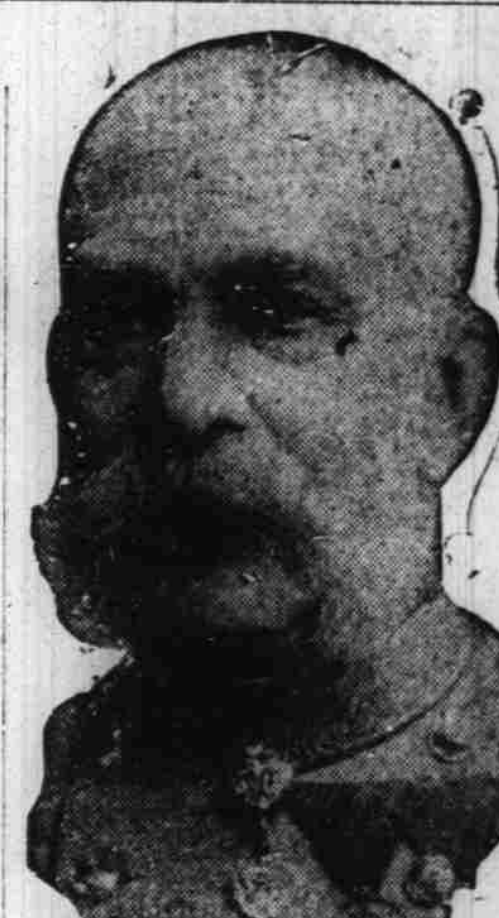

Project Will Grade Assessments in Zones According to the Benefits Received

Plans for the widening and improving of Hotel street between Nuuanu and Bishop streets took on definite form at the meeting of the board of supervisors last night when Supervisor Arnold introduced and secured the passage of a resolution for the city engineer to prepare the necessary data and papers for the creation of a new improvement district. According to the resolution the improvement will be made similarly to the Smith street plans, that is, on a graded basis, assessments varying in zones created according to where the greater benefit accrues.

The resolution presented by Arnold outlines the general plan, specifies the three zones and sets forth the costs. It says that 488 square feet are to be purchased from the John Deter estate and 1534 square feet from the James Campbell estate each for $20,000 and the adjacent property of the two estates exempted from further assessment for this particular improvement. The pavement is to be asphalt macadam and 25 per cent of the cost is to be borne by the city. The district will run from the Waikiki side of Nuuanu street to the Ewa or northwest side of Bishop street.

For the purpose of equalizing the assessment in proportion to benefits three zones are created. Zone 2 is most benefited. It extends from Bethel to Fort taking the frontages on both sides of Hotel, excluding the Campbell and Deter properties. Zone 1 is Ewa of Bethel to Nuuanu and zone 3 Waikiki of Fort to Bishop. The assessment a front foot in zone 2 is estimated at $3.80 its share being $18,128 and zones 1 and 3 at $13.20, their combined shares being $14,864. The city's share is $10,000 and other sums that are provided under territorial laws to be borne by the city.

Following the passage of the resolution Supervisor Horner said he believed that the Bethel street improvements should be included in the proposal and Arnold replied that this was inadvisable and was purposely separated to prevent certain opposition that might be expected should it be done and that the combining of the two in one might give such opposition a frontage involved which might jeopardize the chances of both.

NEW SOUTH WALES VOTE ON CONSCRIPTION CAUSES CABINET REORGANIZATION

(Associated Press by Federal Wireles)
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 22.—The reorganization of the government of New South Wales as a result of the recent vote against conscription was announced here in a cablegram received by the Australian trade commission yesterday.

The new government was brought about as a direct result of the division of the Labor party on the subject of conscription, according to the message. A new progressive party has been organized, the cablegram states, with a cabinet composed of an equal number of Labor members and Liberal members.

Mr. Holman is premier of the new government and Mr. Beely, head of the new progressive party, is minister of labor and industry. Mr. Durack is leader of the opposition.

Thirty-five cowboys from the Santa Ana ranch, near Babilonia, attacked and defeated a detachment of Villa's followers about three miles from San Gerónimo.

AGED AUSTRIAN KING LAYS DOWN LIFE'S BURDENS

Tragic In Extreme Has Been Life of Emperor, Idol of His People

(Associated Press by Federal Wireles)
VIENNA, Austria, Nov. 22.—The Emperor Francis Joseph, who had been sinking for the past several days, died at the Suedbrunn castle at 9 o'clock last night.

At nineteen years of age he ascended the throne of Austria, upon abdication of his uncle, Ferdinand I., December 2, 1848, his death today ending an active reign of 68 years, all but the first 20 which he was also Apostolic King of Hungary.

He faced internal dissensions and external aggressions from the moment he came to the throne. By the war of 1859 with France and Sardinia he was forced to cede Lombardy to Italy; by force of arms and treaty he lost the Duchy of Holstein to Prussia and Venice to Italy; and by the revolt of Kossuth, the Hungarian patriot, he barely escaped having his dual empire cut in two.

Last Tragedy Greatest
Last and greatest of all the troubles that have beset the life of this weary old monarch was the murder of his nephew and heir in 1914 and the following outburst of war which has engulfed his country ever since.

But in human interest his personal sorrows overshadowed all. One after another they came upon him. In 1857 the list of tragic incidents began with an attempt upon his own life. In 1867 his brother, the Archduke Maximilian, after three years' experiment as emperor of Mexico, was captured by the army of the patriots and sentenced to death by a court martial whose sentence was executed notwithstanding intercession in his behalf by the government of the United States, England and Prussia.

Graves Hold Secret
There followed the burning to death of a niece in Vienna; a sister met similar fate in Paris; and a cousin drowned himself in Starnberg Lake, yet these were but minor tragedies in comparison with that which befell the ancient house of the Hapsburgs in 1889 when Rudolf, the imperial prince upon whom the Austrians pinned their hopes, met death in a mystery which to this day is not cleared.

Clouded in still deeper mystery, if possible, was the disappearance that same year of Francis Joseph's favorite nephew, the Archduke Johann Salvator. Heir to the throne at the death of Rudolf, he renounced all of his imperial dignities and fled the country as John Orth, captain of a merchant ship, never to be heard of again. The next of kin, the Archduke Francis Ferdinand, who became heir presumptive, added a further burden to his uncle's heart by moribund marriage to Sophie, the Countess of Cohet, by whom he has had three children, no one of which can succeed to the throne.

Estranged From Empire
But is it doubted if any or all of these reverses weighed more heavily upon the emperor's heart than the almost recent tragedy at Geneva, when the Empress Elizabeth, who had been called the most beautiful woman in Europe, was stabbed to death by a mad Italian anarchist, in 1898. True, she long had been estranged from the emperor, but he had never ceased to respect and adore her. When a courier brought him the news of the crime he exclaimed, "Alas, nothing can be spared me, nothing!"

Idol of Army
As a soldier, the emperor was beloved of his army. In a crushing reverse by the French at Solferino, he suffered such humiliation that he is said to have so wished to die with his men that he stood motionless in the fire of a battery hoping to be struck down. But none of his reverses made him any the less popular at home.

His popularity reached beyond the army. He was truly the idol of his people and especially of Vienna.

Relative to the tragic death of Crown Prince Rudolf of Austria in 1889 there is on file in the archives of Hawaii a letter from the Hawaiian representative at the court of Francis Joseph at that time to King Kalakaua which purports to give the reasons which moved the heir apparent to the throne of the dual monarchy to kill the woman whom he loved and to take his life. This letter states that the tragedy followed fast upon the information given to the crown prince that the woman was his half-sister, an illegitimate daughter of his father.

UNITED STEEL ADVANCES WAGES OF EMPLOYEES

(Associated Press by Federal Wireles)
NEW YORK, N. Y., Nov. 22.—Two hundred thousand employees of the United Steel Corporation have been granted an increase of 10 per cent in their present wages, it was announced by company officials yesterday. The salary raise adds $20,000,000 annually to the company's payroll. The increase becomes effective December 15.
